Call to order:

The board meetings of the Meridian Park PTSA was called to order in the Meridian Park gym at 6:35 PM by PTSA President Brian Heagler. Members had been informed about the meeting through letters sent home in the boomerangs, and through PTSA and school websites. Those present were : Tracey Poole, Mary Crandell, Janina Pacunski, Brian Heagler, Kathy Tinoco, Amy Delaney, Aileen Lu, Brenda Stuvek, Shelley Anderson, Tracey Poole, Lorraine Flaherty, and numerous others who did not sign the attendance sheet..

March meeting minutes were approved as written.

Brian Heagler reminded those present about some important upcoming events including : the talent show this Friday 4/9 at Shorecrest, Embrace Shoreline Schools day on 5/15, Flea Market on 5/22 and the car show on 8/1.

Brian Heagler read the list of nominations for next year's PTSA positions and officers as put forward by the nominating committee. There were no nominations from the floor. All present were in favor of current slate of nominees and none were opposed.

Brian then presented the Andree Rice Outstanding Educator award. He reported that there were 15 nominations this year, and this year's winner was Annie Sitzenstock. Brian read several comments from those who nominated her, including one that noted that she is "awesome beyond measure."

Brian then presented the Golden Acorn Award for outstanding volunteer. There were 16 nominations this year and the winner was Shelley Anderson for all her work doing Math Club. Brian reviewed the duties of this position and discussed the results of the recent Math Olympiad.

Brian also acknowledged Suzanne Gugger for all her hard work as legislative chair, and Kathy T. and Jennifer Alley for all their hard work reviewing nominations and selecting winners.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:52 PM.
